The meeting at the U. B. Church was well attended all last week, Rev. Dunkelberger preaching strong sermons. On Wednesday night he delivered an illustrated lecture which was highly complimented by many who heard it. The meeting will probably continue through this week.

The President of the United States urges the farmers throughout the country to plant every available foot of ground in seed that will bring something for the comfort of man. If our men go to war they must be fed, and besides the home consumption would be great.

The Germans have been losing heavily for the past twenty days, and to the reader it looks now like the war will be over before the United States gets into it. Furthermore, the French and the British have been greatly stimulated by the action of Mr. Wilson backed by the Congress of this country, and they are fighting more vigorously than at any other time since the war commenced.

Arthur Stanwood Pier of the editorial staff of The Youth's Companion, author of The Boys of St. Timothy's, The Pedagogues, and other stories, gave up his vacation in 1915 to join the military training camp at Plattsburgh, New York, where officers of the United States Army teach civilians. The French and the British have been greatly stimulated by the action of Mr. Wilson backed by the Congress of this country, and they are fighting more vigorously than at any other time since the war commenced.

Mrs. Dollie Morris, who was the wife of J. W. Morris, after a long illness, died at her late home, near Ozark, last Tuesday night at 9 o'clock. She was forty-seven years old and was a victim of consumption. She was a lady who had many friends in the neighborhood, and her death brought much sorrow to the neighborhood. She was a native of Cumberland county and her remains were conveyed to her old home for burial.

There is much talk just now about the high price of flour, and the most reliable reason for it is, the speculators are cornering the wheat, and many of them are engaged in buying up the flour in ten and twenty thousand pound lots. In that way the consumer is forced to pay enormous prices for bread stuff. This is a matter that should be investigated, for there is absolutely no good reason for flour to be as high as at the present.

The home mills here cannot get wheat sufficient to supply local demands. A man who will buy wheat and flour at this time for the purpose of speculation is almost heartless.

Eggs for Rathing.

Full stock Light Brahman eggs $1 per dozen. Call and see my chickens.

N. B. Kelsay, Columbia, Ky.

A Card.

Mrs. Montgomery and her three sons, Mont, Byron and Nolan desire to return their grateful thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted them in the sickness, terminating in death, of her husband and father. The kindness manifested will ever be remembered.

Death of a Colored Man.

Clarence Allen, a well-known colored man, who was born and reared in Columbia, died last Friday afternoon. He was about forty-two years old, and was sick only about one week. He was buried in the colored graveyard near town, Saturday forenoon. He leaves a wife and several children.

Invest in Business Education.

There is no other investment on this earth equal to that in business education. A young man of young woman can invest $200 or $300 in a course in the Bowling Green Business University, and in less than twelve months get it all back, and two or three times as much more with it.

A Fortune for Young People.

If a thousand Adair boys and girls would equip themselves with a thorough business education, they would have a fortune in their heads and hands. There has never been a greater demand for skillful office help. The Business University, at Bowling Green, Ky., is reported as receiving six to eight times as many calls for its graduates as it can furnish.

Will Take Charge May 1.

W. R. Myers and E. B. Barger will take charge of the Columbia Roller Mill May 1st. Mr. Myers is a miller of long experience and is well known as such throughout Adair and adjoining counties. The new firm will buy all the corn and wheat that will be delivered to it, paying the highest market price. People who have grain for sale, should see Myers & Barger before disposing of same.

Death of Press Williams

Perhaps one of the best known colored men in Adair county died last Saturday night—Press Williams, who lived on the Burkesville pike in the suburbs of Columbia. He was a victim of consumption, and was confined to his home about two months. He was about 48 years old. Funeral and burial Sunday afternoon, a number of white people attending. He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter.

All Correct.

Mr. D. A. Logan, State Inspector of county records, spent last week in Columbia, examining the records of the County Clerk, the Circuit Clerk and the County Judge. He reported to this office that he found every thing correct, and left certificates to that effect. Mr. Logan is a very pleasant gentleman and while here formed many acquaintances. He is a brother of M. M. Logan, the Attorney General of the State.

Death of Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Dollie Morris, who was the wife of J. W. Morris, after a long illness, died at her late home, near Ozark, last Tuesday night at 9 o'clock. She was forty-seven years old and was a victim of consumption. She was a lady who had many friends in the neighborhood, and her death brought much sorrow to the neighborhood. She was a native of Cumberland county and her remains were conveyed to her old home for burial.

For County Judge.

A notice of Judge Junius Hancock's candidacy for the office of County Judge of Adair county, subject to the action of the Republican party, has been expected to appear in the News for several weeks, and this week his many friends will not be disappointed as it can be found under the proper heading.

Judge Hancock is a gentleman who does not need an introduction to the voters of Adair county. When a young man he served the county for two terms as circuit court clerk, making a very efficient officer, and later he served the county two terms as its County Judge. In the capacity of this last named office, his official acts met the approval of the citizenship of the county.

He was watchful and at the same time he conducted the office with ability. It is an advantage for a County Judge to understand the law. In fact he should be well informed upon this subject. A good many years ago Judge Hancock read and studied law and was licensed to practice. He has not been an active practitioner, but in drawing up legal papers, he is at home. It is now about three months until the primary. The time intervening will be put in by the Judge in seeing his friends

A wave of patriotism is sweeping over our country since the declaration that a state of war exists. A number of flags can be found on business houses throughout the county, and every one seems anxious that a world's democracy be established for down-trodden people in place of autocratic power exercised by a few governments.

Mr. Henry Buchanan sold 34 head of sillage fed steers, last week, to J. C. Durham. The bunch averaged over 1,100 pounds, and was sold on the Louisville market, Monday, from 10 to 11 cents per pound.

I. K. Miller and Sons sold 30 head to Gaines, Spalding & Sapp, to be delivered Saturday, at nearly 10 cents a pound.

Mr. Robert H. Russell has been plowing this week with a J. I. Case tractor which he recently purchased. If the test it has proved very successful, and no doubt that the purchase of it will be a good investment for him, as he has over 100 acres of first-class bottoms on Robinson creek where it can be utilized as a great convenience.

Miss Mary Chandler, who teaches expression in the Campbellsville High school, presented two plays to the public Wednesday evening, to a crowded house, at the Alhambra theater. There were two plays in the exercises. "The Tramps Convention" was given by 14 boys, and elicited much applause from a pleased audience. The title of the play rendered by the young ladies was "The Clancy Kids." Each one in this play acquitted herself to the satisfaction of every one. All of the exercises were duly praised, and Miss Chandler was highly elated over the complimentary expressions heard from every corner.

The backwardness of farming weather is placing a gloom over most of the farmers' faces, but they gain some comfort from the fact that they know behind each cloud the sun is still shining.

Mr. Joe Wade, who farms on the intensive plan, is going to plant 25 bushels of Irish potatoes this season. He was our representative a few years ago in the Legislature, and acted to the satisfaction of his constituents in that capacity. Whatever he undertakes is not slighted. His wife is a teacher in the R. C. A., eighth grade. Their little daughter, Dixie, who is 10 years of age, is quite talented in many respects.

A great per cent. of the land of Taylor county has been leased to different oil companies. They report prospects for minerals are very encouraging, and it is reported that machinery will be moved in at once to try out the field. The terms of the leases are so made that it will necessitate a try out within one year.

Mr. William Francis, formerly of your county, has announced for county Judge of Taylor. His straightforward dealing with the public has won for him many warm friends. His opponent will be Judge W. T. Henrickson, who has made an efficient officer. If all of our other officers possessed equal qualifications, we wouldn't suffer any uneasiness as to being misruled.

For The Season Of 1917

I will Offer For Public Service KING PEACOCK, at Gradyville, Ky., at $10.00
To Insure a Living Colt

This Fine Horse has proven himself a good breeder, and his Colts have Size, Styles and Action. He was sired by Jordan Peacock 1148, he by Peacock 498, he by Blue Jeans 3, he by Peters' Halcon Imp. King Peacock's 1st. dam was by Coleman's King Lexington, he by Cabbell's Lexington, he by Gists Black Hawk, he by Bloods Black Hawk. King's 2nd dam by Red Cloud, 3rd dam by Artist 75, he by King William 67. There is not a better Saddle Bred Horse in Kentucky than King Peacock, and the price for the service of this Fine Horse is only one-half what it should be.

Seven Big Mammoth Jacks

At the Gradyville Fine Stock Stables and I will stand as many of them as will take to accommodate all that come,

At the head of this Fine Herd of Jacks is Highway, one of the best breeders living. His colts always bring the highest price. Some of them sold last fall at weaning time for $100. D. C. Wheeler was offered $352 last June for a pair of his colts, one year old.

Highway was sired by L. W. Preston's Highway, at Glasgow, a jack that has been shown at a number of the best Fairs in Kentucky and Tennessee, and never lost a blue tie. Preston sold him to a party in Tennessee for $1000. Highway's grand sire was Napoleon a Jack that sold at Lexington for $1500. Highway's 1st dam was by Gov. St. John, a 16 hand Jack, he by Gov. Wood a 16 hand Jack that sold for $1500. Highway's 2nd dam was by Hubbles Brignolia that sold for $1500.

The above pedigree shows that there is not a better bred Jack living than Highway, and he is the surest Jack I ever owned.

Kentucky Choice, 5 years old, 16 hands high, weight 1175 lbs. 38 in. from tip to tip of ears, extra heavy bone, wears a No. 3 shoe, fine style and action, black with white points. This Jack's colt wore the blue tie at the Columbia fair last August and was sold at weaning time for $100 to Charlie Browning, and the same day Browning was offered $105 for it. This Jack breeds size and style and the kind that brings the highest price.

He was sired by Highway, 1st dam by the Sam Akens Jack, west of Greensburg, and a Jack Mr. Akens sold for $900. 2nd dam by Terry's Liberty, a Jack that sold for $1200.

JACK NO. 3.

Kentucky's Best, 4 years old, 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ hands high and one of the best Jacks in Kentucky, his colts have the size and style and the kind that brings the highest price. Kentucky's Best was sired by Highway, dam by Gov. St. John, 2nd dam by Imp Leon, 3rd dam by Terry's Liberty.

JACK NO. 4.

Is Happy Jack, 5 years old, 15 hands high, and the finest model Jack I ever saw, and is a first-class breeder. Sired by Highway, 1st dam by Gov. St. John, 2nd dam by Imp Leon, 3rd dam by Terry's Liberty.

JACK NO. 5.

Is Gov. St. John 3 years old, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ hands high, black with white points, extra heavy body and the largest bone I ever saw on any Jack. He was sired by Black Diamond, he by Wallace Wood, he by Gov. Wood. 1st dam by Gov. St. John, 2nd dam by Hubble's Brignolia. This is the making of a great Jack.

JACK NO. 6.

Is Jack O'Diamonds, 6 years old, 15 hands high. His oldest mules are 3 years old and some of them are now 16 hands high and have lots weight and bone. This Jack was sired by G. Y. Thompson's 16 hand Jack, at Center, Ky. 1st dam by Gov. St. John.

JACK NO. 7.

Is 3 years old, black and a perfect model, by Highway. 1st dam by Imp Leon, 2nd dam by Terry's Liberty.

I will charge $8.00 for a horse mule and $10.00 for mare mule. Money due if mare is traded or leaves the neighborhood.

First-class Mules In Great Demand.

Below you will find a list of sales that have been made recently, and if you want to raise mules that bring high prices, bring your mares to my Jacks and you are sure to get them. These Jacks colts won first and second at the Columbia fair last year. This is evidence that they get the best colts.

With the advent of spring and the necessity of having mules on the farm to do the draft work, there has been an increasing demand for these animals, and the following recent sales by well-known dealers have been reported:

"Caywood, Smith & McClintock sold to E. F. Spears & Sons, of Paris, five head of mare mules for $1,110; Frank Rogers, of Montgomery county, four mare mules for $1,000; Edward F. Prichard, of Paris, four mare mules for $900, Aylette Buckner, of Bourbon, a pair of extra good four-year-old mules for $520; a Nicholas county farmer one pair of four-year-old mare mules for $510; Arch Ginn, of Hutchison, two mare mules for $500; Warren Rogers of Cane Ridge, a pair of six-year-old mare mules for $485; James Woodford, of Bourbon, two mare mules for $460; T. Obituary.

God in his infinite wisdom dealing justly with all mankind, sent the death angel to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Janes and claimed for its victim the beloved wife and mother. She had been sick several months with consumption and at last the time came for her to pass over the road which no traveler has ever returned and we too must sooner or later pass the same way, and if we have been redeemed and our sins washed away by the blood of the Lamb, as we earnestly believe cousin Mary was, we shall walk in the narrow way and enter in at the straight gate into life eternal.

She was born Oct. 17, 1867, died Mar. 5, 1917, age 49 years, 5 mos. and 19 days. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rowe, (deceased) She was married to Charlie Janes, Dec. 18, 1890. There were born to their union 5 children, 2 boys and 3 girls. One boy and one girl died some time ago and was waiting with outstretched arms to welcome their mother into the realms of a never fading bliss and glory. She professed faith in Christ when young and joined the U. B. church and lived a devoted christian life until the end came, and then said Jesus was near and when we realize Jesus is near us, all fear leaves, because we know he always has stood by the true christian, and will forever. Cousin Mary will be greatly missed by her children and husband, neighbors, church and Sunday school. She was a great Sunday school worker and was one of Mt. Pleasant's best teachers. She was for the enterprise of her community and the building up of the kingdom of Christ. We have been permitted to look out over the marvelous works of the hands of the Almighty and meditate day and night upon thy mysteries. We have been permitted to look upon the beautiful flowers of the fields like unto which no artist no could paint, one that was very near and dear to us. We looked upon it when it was in the bloom of health, as though it was watered from the dew of heaven and again we saw it withering and decaying, and then the Lord saw fit to pluck it out of our sight and transplant it in heaven above, where there is no withering or decaying, but all is peace and love. Weep not husband and children for cousin Mary for she is in the hands of a just God who will reward her according to her works, and we know that she is now resting from all her labor for by a trees fruit ye shall know them. While its our loss its heaven's gain and husband and children only let this draw you nearer heaven and closer to God, that when the death angel calls you, that you can lay down the cross and take up up your crown and dwell in peace forever. Our sympathy extends both far and wide for the bereaved husband, children, brother and sisters and many friends who will miss her. She cannot come back to us, but by so working and the help of God, we can clasp those beautiful hands on heaven's bright shore. It was hard for the husband and children to carry mother out of their home never to come back any more, but she was carried to a home not made with hand, but eternal in the heaven and we have the promise of this home if we live faithful and true christian. Rev. L. I. Chandler attended the funeral services which were largely attended after which the remains were laid to rest in the Rowetown cemetery.

A cousin, Simpson Rowe.

Editor News:—

Seeing in your paper of a few weeks ago my letter from here, will try and send some more news.

Suppose you and your readers all know that all the wars the United States has been engaged in since the Revolutionary war, have been declared in April. Last Friday, the 6th of April, was good Friday, and will long be remembered by the people of the United States, as on that day President Wilson signed the declaration of war against Germany. Let's hope that this declaration of war and the agitation of the socialistic power in the German Empire will be the means of a speedy ending of the Kaiser of Germany. With him off the throne, I think will bring a speedy ending of hostility. Ohio is now preparing to send her best young men to war. All the recruiting stations in Cincinnati as well as Hamilton, is besieged by young patriotic men eager to enlist for the United States. So in the very near future laborers here will be at a premium, as it is, there are not enough men to supply the demand.

Farmers are begging for help at from $30 to $40 per month with board etc., included. Shops are short of men in every department. I work in the country 5 days each week, and in the city 1 day—Friday. On that day I make eight factories in the afternoon, namely: Herring Hall, Marvin Safe Co., Mosler Safe Co., the largest safe factory in the United States, Fred J. Meyers Manufacturing Company, maker of ornamental fences etc., Hamilton Foundry & Machine Co., Simplex Machine & Tool Co., makers of all kinds of small machine parts, Hamilton Tool & Machine Co., American Foundry Co., Autographic Register Co., C. Benning Hofen & Son, manufacturers of gasoline engines of all sizes. They are all short of men in every department and offer good inducements to young men. On the afternoon I make those factories, I am approached by the heads of the different departments asking me about men. There will also start here in about six weeks a big steel plant that will use about 3 to 500 men on an 8 hour basis. Two of the largest factories of this kind in the world are located and running day and night.

The Champion Coated Paper Co., works about 2,000 to 2,500 men and women. The men work 8 hour shifts. They use on an average 18 car loads of coal every 24 hours. The Niles Tool Works have on their pay roll about 2,000 men. They make all kinds of tools and machinery, and are the largest in the United States. We also have three oil companies doing business in Hamilton. The Indian Refining Co., on B. Street West Hamilton, head office New York. The Refiner's Oil Co., on Maple street, and the Old Reliable Standard Oil Company, on 6th street. C. H. & D. R. R., & Hanover St. The last named company I am working for as tank wagon salesman. I also have three more companies to fight in the country beside those already named; The White Star Company, located at Eaton, Ohio, Moore's Oil Company, of Cincinnati, and the Western Refining Company, of Indianapolis. The latter company only sells through salesmen, and deliver their goods in steel barrels only. The oil business is very good here and prices booming. Coal oil is 10 cents per gallon, gasoline 22 cents, polarine $2.75 cents in 5 gallons. I try to leave each morning at 6:30, more often 7, then make from 20 to 35 miles per day. Sometimes I do not get in till 8 or 9 o'clock at night, but if we get in at 2 p.m., our day's work is ended. We get straight time when we lay off sick—our pay goes on just the same. I have been here six months the 4th of April, and have not lost a day since I started in with them. I was out when the thermometer registered 18 and 20 below zero, and made my route just the same. I did not miss a single customer. Now as summer is coming and so many automobiles in the country, I guess it will keep me busy to supply the trade. Nineteen out of every twenty farmers own an automobile, some have trucks. Lots of farm tractors in my territory which consume something like 20 or 25 gallons of oil each day. I have one customer at Seven mile, Ohio, who uses two big trucks and hauls milk to Hamilton in the morning, then in the afternoon stock to Cincinnati. He uses about 120 gallons of gasoline a week. I fill his tanks twice a week. This county looks like the Blue Grass land in Kentucky, only lots of gravel on the bottom land. Blue grass is natural here. Land sells from $125 to $300 an acre. Most of the land owners live in town and rent their farms. The renter furnishes all stock tools etc., and gives one-half. Lots of them pay so much extra for pastures and house rent.

This has been the worst Easter Sunday I ever saw. It has been snowing since 9 a.m., and is now 8 p.m., and still coming down.

Our Bible School, the High Street Church of Christ, has one of the largest Bible schools in the State. On the last Sunday in February had the 4th largest school in the United States, to-day as bad as the weather was, we had 394 in school.

It is reported from Copenhagen that more than $13,000,000 was paid by Germany to Russian commanders to betray their country and let the Teuton troops through the Russian lines. How Jackson was Made President.

"A pig caused the election of Andrew Jackson to the Presidency," said Mr. Cummins in Washington the other day, in discussing this theory. "A Rhode Island farmer, who was on his way to vote for a member of the State Legislature, heard one of his pigs squeal. Going back he found that one of the porkers had got caught in the gate. It took him several minutes to free the animal, and when he finally got to the polling place he found it closed and so was unable to cast his ballot.

"The candidate for the Legislature for whom the farmer meant to vote was defeated by just one vote, which of course, was lacking because the farmer's pig got fast in the gate. The man who was elected instead to the Legislature voted for a certain candidate for United States Senator, and this man was elected by one vote. Afterwards this Senator was called on to vote on the question of declaring war on Great Britain, and the proposition was carried by just one vote.

"One of the battles of the war with Great Britain that ensued is known to historians as the Battle of New Orleans. Everyone knows that the hero of this battle was Andrew Jackson. His victory over the British there made him quite a popular man, and this eventually led to his election to the Presidency. In this chain of events the logical deduction is that but for the pig that got caught in the gateway up in Rhode Island Andrew Jackson would never have become the President of the United States."—Pathfinder.

By reason of the recent executive order issued by President Wilson all incumbent postmasters of the first, second and third classes were placed under civil service, and will so remain as long as their offices show up with good records.

The order automatically ends the term-sysem and incumbents hold office until vacancies are created by removal, death or resignation, according to the general belief.

Postmaster General Burleson made this statement about the new order.

"Incumbent postmasters rendering good service and who continue to administer the affairs of their offices with ability, will not be disturbed in such offices by any recommendation made by the head of the department. It is due them, however, at this time to make it clear that hereafter supervisory officials of the department will be more exacting in the enforcement of those postal rules and regulations which make for increased efficiency, and postmasters will not only be expected to devote their time during office hours to a proper administration of their respective offices but they will be required to thoroughly acquaint themselves with the various postal activities under their charge and in the future to occupy such part of their time not properly given to administrative work to the performance of some part of those activities.

DON'T INVEST IN PAINT

UNTIL YOU INVESTIGATE THE PAINT ITSELF

Kurftees Paint will bear the closest investigation. No secrets about it—its just Pure Lead and Zinc. No Silica, China Clay, Barytes or any other cheap stuff.

WHITE LEAD (Pure Lead Carbonate) . . . 80%
WHITE ZINC (Pure Oxide of Zinc) . . . 20%
100%

That's Kurftees Paint. Could anything be better? Kurftees is not the Half Lead kind, but 80% Lead with 20% Zinc, which is sufficient Zinc to prevent chalking or rubbing off. To add more Zinc or to use less Lead would shorten the life of the paint.

Kurftees contains more Lead than any other paint. It is the heaviest bodied and heaviest gallon. The Outside White weighs 19 pounds to the gallon.

For painting floors, use Granitoid Floor Paint.

For finishing floors in Hardwood effect use Kur-Fa-Cite.

Married in Texas.

Mr. Ed Hill, who is a prominent merchant of Campbellsville, and also prominent in the Methodist Church, a gentleman who stands high with the populace of Taylor county, was recently married, in Texas, to Miss Ella Overton, who was a resident of Campbellsville while her father was pastor of the Methodist Church, that city. She is an accomplished young woman, one who is a favorite with all her friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hill reached Campbellsville last Tuesday night and were given a cordial greeting. The groom has a great many friends in the Columbia Methodist Conference district, all of whom will be glad to know that he has been happily married. This paper extends to him and his best wishes, trusting that only happiness will come into their lives so long as both may live.

Crude Oil Shipped from Adair.

Many of the older citizens of Adair county remember that in 1866 the oil excitement about this place was at a high pitch. Speculators from Pennsylvania were here in great numbers, and several wells were put down, but not very deep.

On Harrod's fork, on the farm that was owned by Mrs. Susan Wilkerson at the time, a well was drilled and oil found, which produced quite a number of barrels per day. The oil was barreled, hauled to the river and shipped. There are men in the county now who visited the well, and know that this statement is correct. The oil ceased to flow on account of salt water.

Mrs. Wilkerson afterward sold the land and removed to Texas. It is not unlikely that a well or two will again be drilled on this farm.

Mrs. Luvenia Coffey Passes.

We learn from the News-Journal, Campbellsville, that Mrs. Luvenia Coffey, who was a resident of Columbia for more than twenty years, died in that city Monday night of last week. She was the widow of John A. Coffey, who represented Adair in the lower House of the Kentucky Legislature some years before he died. The deceased was a daughter of Dr. Milton Wolford and a niece of Gen. Frank Wolford. She was born and grew to womanhood in Russell county, but spent the greater portion of her life in Adair county. While living in Columbia she resided in the residence now owned by Mr. Geo. M. Stevenson, which was built by her husband.

Mrs. Coffey was a member of the Christian Church while here and was a regular attendant upon all the ordinances. She leaves quite a number of friends in this place, who were sorry to learn of her demise. To the surviving daughter, Mrs. J. O. Mitchell, this community sends condolence.

One brother lives in this county, Mr. Milton Wolford, who has served Adair as Jailer and Sheriff.

The Missionary Meeting.

The Ladies Missionary meeting of the Russell Creek Baptists, was held in the Baptist church, this city, during the day last Friday. It was largely attended and the exercises proved to be very interesting, the zeal for mission work being strongly brought out.

Miss Annie Sanding, who has been a missionary in China, was present, and gave a number of very interesting addresses. She was accompanied Mrs. Kate C. Hinkle, who gave an illustrated lecture at the Paramount Theatre Friday evening which proved to be of great interest.

During the day Mesdames R. L. Hill, Campbellsville, L. C. Nell, Gradyville, O. P. Bush, Columbia, and Miss Eva Murrell, Zion, read excellent ly prepared papers. Miss Catherine Nell, this place, gave a reading, very appropriate to the subject under discussion.

Refreshments were served at the noon hour. It was a most happy gathering of Christian women, and the day will long be remembered.

Miss Sanders and Mrs. Hinkle went from here to Russell Springs.

Gradyville.

Will Hill of Glasgow, was with us last Saturday.

We had a good rain Friday which was badly needed.

The wheat crop is looking better in this section.

Nat Walker of Columbia was shaking hands with his friends here last Thursday and Friday.

Since our roads are getting better we are getting our mail on time.

Uncle Robert O. Keltner was in Columbia last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Baker entertained a few of their special friends one day last week.

The Wilmore House is receiving a new coat of paint this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvest Hill of Columbia visited their father and mother here last Friday night.

Charley Morrison of Fry, was in our town last Friday on business.

The barbershop of our town will be reopened in a short time.

W. G. Pickett the well known merchant and tobacco man, of Pickett, was in our midst last Friday.

John Q. Alexander the popular dry goods man of Louisville, was calling on his trade in our city last Thursday.

Joel Rodgers was on his farm at Roachville, last Thursday and reports everything moving along nicely.

The farmers in this section are about ready to plant corn and we glad to say there will be a very large crop planted.

Quite a number of acres of land in this section of county has been leased by several different oil companies.

Mesdames L. C. Nell, Ella Y. Robertson and Mrs. June Grist of our city attended the Missionary meeting at Columbia last Friday.

Your reporter has had thirty seven years experience in the mercantile business at this place and this is the first time that granulated sugar would bring 12¢ cent pound, and calico 10¢ domestic 12¢ per yard or a dozen: eggs worth 25¢, a pound of chicken worth 20 cents or bacon 25 cents. Notwithstanding the high prices in everything our people have plenty of money and business is unusually good.

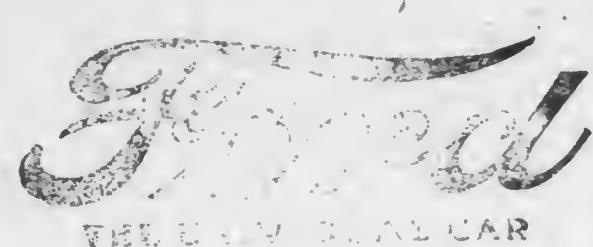

J. C. Yates Sale.

My sale was a success. Jersey cows $50 to $80, yearling heifers $35 to $45. Sows and pigs $40 to $155, mules $330 $155 a pair. 75 hogs, $12.00 to $15.80 per 100 pound. 500 bushels corn $1.50 per bushel. Brood mares $125 to $145. But what I appreciated most was my friends coming from all the adjoining counties, and more than all the two car loads from Adair county. When I left Cager, I made this 100 mile trip just to shake hands with you, (and that was about all I had time to do,) still it made me feel like I wanted to put my arm around the big man. I love the people in the country where I was born and reared. We had an ideal day and looks like we might have some good weather.

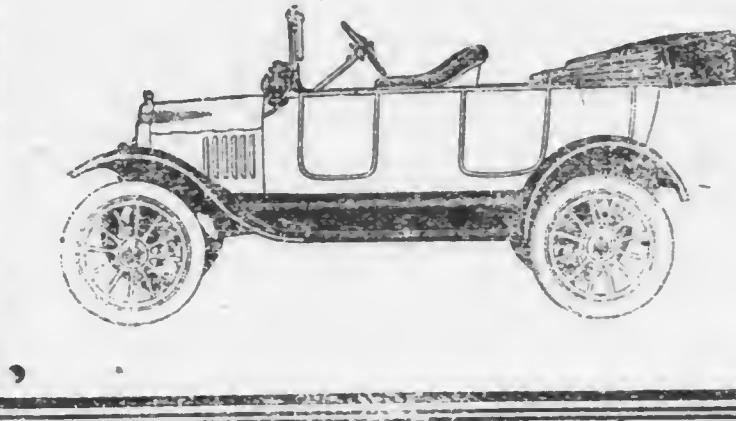

Our farmers have done nothing but plow sod. Less work done for middle April than I ever saw. After this week I am going to make peace work and will be in Adair county, to spend a week among my friends. Of course no boys who wear overalls will have me to support and that's right, I have passed my 3 score and six and the boys ought to support the old man any now. Thinking you all for everything I am resp't,

J. C. Yates.

DAKOTA JACK

Right now this country is calling for men of stout hearts and sound bodies. It needs them to keep Old Glory triumphant and unsullied in the air.

The exigency now confronting us emphasizes, as nothing else could do, the importance of good health, both as an individual and national asset.

It gives point to the suggestion, often emanating from this office, that every body should guard their health as a priceless possession. French offensive on the Northern and Southern sectors of the center of the battle line in France, the Germans lost more than 33,000 prisoners and 330 guns larger than machine guns. Monday of each of the last two weeks has seen the beginning of a new offensive by one of the Entente armies, and the heavy artillery duels of the last two days may be the forerunner of a new thrust against the battered German lines.
